Flank Steak Skewers

Flank Steak Skewers

These Flank Steak Skewers are all about Summer and this 4th of July weekend. A whole meal right here on these metal skewers, the steak, the vegetables and the flavor. Growing up in an Italian household our BBQ sauce consisted of a basic olive oil, garlic, lemon juice and herbs, still one of my favorites.

But today I wanted to share this quick and easy BBQ sauce that uses few ingredients you probably have on hand, is ready in 15 minutes. and comes out prefect every time.

The difference between the two is just a few ingredient and sugar!!! Because I added sugar, it also added an extra step, cooking it to melt the sugar.

Those little changes produced big results in terms of flavor. This recipe works well with chicken too, if you want something lighter.

Wood Verses Metal Skewers

In this Flank Steak Skewer recipe I used 12 inch long metal Skewers. Skewers come in a variety of lengths and materials. Wooden bamboo too are a great option for camping trips or when you don't want to have to wash metal ones. They're inexpensive and typically quite sharp.

But there are a few downsides that you might want to consider upgrading to reusable metal skewers. Bamboo is a naturally fibrous and tends to split easily, what this means is you have to be careful you don't end up with wood splinters in your meat.

They also burn, soaking wooden skewers in water for 30 minutes helps to prevent them from burning while cooking. I prefer metal skewers , which have a long life are reusable and thus easier on the environment. They won't catch on fire , but you do need to be careful as they get incredibly hot. We're in the grilling season and in my house meals on metal skewers and Summer go together.

Happy 4th of July my friends remember the reason for the celebration..... The Land of the Free because of the Brave!!!

I love Meatballs as much as I love Pasta and for the same reasons. They're just so easy, delicious, versatile and everyone loves them. This meatball garlic toast uses my Mama's traditional meatball recipe reconstruct to fit my lifestyle and taste, using ground Turkey breast. While ground turkey isn't my favorite I use it when I want a healthier option, plus you can never go wrong with Meatballs.

Plenty of Parmesan with a few simple ingredients and plenty of fresh herbs, turned that flavorless ground turkey into something totally drool worthy.

Three Tips When Making This turkey meatball garlic toast

First when mixing the meat into the other ingredients don't over mix or overcook, both lead to tough hard meatballs.

A case in point to the last sentence, a new prep cook was mixing the mixture in the dough mixer, and that explained why the meatballs were rock hard. There is no nice way to put it, they were not good.

The other thing to remember is that the meatballs are cooked twice first roasted, then in the sauce, so it's easy to overcook them. Roasting the meatballs adds another depth of flavor and beautiful color.

I try to use my handy- dandy toaster oven whenever I can. I don't like turning on my oven every time I need to toast something, my toaster oven is one of my most used small kitchen appliances, if you don't have one they're well worth the cost.

Third this is another custom-able recipe, if you like the traditional use a high grade ground beef, or a mixture of chicken, beef, or veal.

Experiment, food and cooking is meant to be fun and enjoyable, I have simplified and gave you made ahead tips to make cooking a journey, not a destination always learning, always finding new ingredients to satisfy our changing life style and diet....Have Fun!!! My every first time using the air fry option on my Cuisinart toaster oven, and I have to say Am in love. There really is nothing better than fried chicken.

These parmesan and everything bagel seasoned, air fried chicken tenders are no exception. Delicious and guiltless these chicken tenders are baked to perfection using the air fry option on my Cuisinart toaster oven. If you don't have an air fryer NO problem use the oven fry method in the instructions.

Chicken tenders have always been one of my family's favorite food. It's one of those recipes I know I can make in no time and the whole family will love. They come together in less than 30 minutes, I serve them with crispy celery sticks, buffalo hot sauce, ranch dressing, and marinara sauce. They're prefect for Super Bowl Sundays, add a salad, some starch and you have an easy weeknight meal that's delicious enough for Saturday night dinner with friends.

Things to know about this Crispy Chicken Tenders in the Air Fryer

I used whole boneless, skinless, chicken breast and cut them, you can use chicken tenders or boneless chicken thighs if that fits your taste.

The everything bagel seasoning adds fantastic flavor when mixed with the breadcrumbs and Parmesan, but it can be quite salty, so use it sparingly. If you're air frying, spraying the chicken with cooking spray helps create an extra crispy crust—but it's optional.

These chicken tenders are just as delicious cold or at room temperature, making them perfect for next-day meals. Plus, they freeze well, so any leftovers can be stored for a quick, ready-made meal later.

They're air fried so you don't have to feel guilty about eating more than you planned, I don't.

In fact I eat one or two plain, right out of the oven, they can be addicting, and since I've discovered the awesomeness of air frying, for sure I'll be making them more often.
