Fall has always been my favorite time of year. There's just something about the crisp air, the changing leaves, and the way the kitchen feels cozier when something warm is baking in the oven. I especially love cooking with fall produce, and butternut squash is always at the top of my list. It's naturally sweet, roasts up beautifully, and makes the creamiest base for so many comforting dishes. This butternut squash lasagna is one of my favorites—it's layered with roasted squash, creamy ricotta, and plenty of cheese for the ultimate cozy dinner. It's the kind of meal that's perfect for a Sunday dinner with family or sharing around the table with friends

Things to know about this butternut squash lasagna

- Make-Ahead: You can assemble the lasagna a day ahead, cover it tightly with foil, and refrigerate until ready to bake. Just add 10–15 extra minutes to the baking time.

- Freezer Option: This lasagna freezes beautifully! Bake it, let it cool completely, then wrap well and freeze for up to 3 months. Reheat covered at 350°F until warmed through.
- Cheese Swaps: Ricotta is classic, but you can use cottage cheese for extra protein, or add fontina or Gruyère for a richer flavor.
- Shortcuts: Save time by buying pre-cut butternut squash or even frozen squash. No-boil lasagna noodles also make this recipe easier.
- Add a Protein: If you'd like, layer in Italian sausage, pancetta, or shredded chicken for a heartier version.
- And if you want to take this lasagna to the next level, try it with my Easy Béchamel Sauce recipe. It's quick to make and adds that extra creamy layer that makes this dish irresistible.
- Serving Tip: This lasagna pairs beautifully with a simple green salad and crusty bread for a complete fall dinner.

Butternut Squash Lasagna

- 1 medium butternut squash (about 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ –3 lbs.), peeled, seeded, and cubed
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tsp fresh thyme (or $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp dried)
- 1 tsp fresh sage, chopped (or $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp dried)
- Salt and black pepper, to taste
- 2 cups ricotta cheese
- 1 large egg
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups shredded mozzarella cheese
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 cups béchamel (homemade or store-bought)
- 9 lasagna noodles (no-boil or cooked)
- $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp red pepper flakes for heat, crispy sage leaves for garnish (optional)

1. Roast the Squash.

Preheat oven to 400°F (200°C). Toss squash cubes with olive oil, garlic, thyme, sage, salt, and pepper. Spread on a baking sheet and roast for 25–30 minutes, until soft and caramelized. Mash lightly with a fork (leave a few chunks for texture).

2. Prepare the Cheese Mixture. In a bowl, mix ricotta, egg, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup mozzarella, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup Parmesan, salt, and pepper.
3. Assemble the Lasagna. Spread a thin layer of béchamel on the bottom of a 9×13-inch baking dish. Add noodles, a layer of mashed squash, dollops of ricotta mixture, a drizzle of béchamel, and a sprinkle of mozzarella. Repeat layers (about 3 total), finishing with noodles topped with béchamel, mozzarella, and remaining Parmesan.
4. Bake. Cover with foil and bake at 375°F (190°C) for 25 minutes. Remove foil and bake another 15–20 minutes until golden and bubbling. Let rest for 10 minutes before slicing.
5. Serve. Garnish with crispy sage leaves or extra Parmesan.

It's no surprise most Italian restaurants have risotto on their menu, it seems too complicated for the home cook. Am here to tell you it's not complicated at all. This creamy butternut squash risotto with arborio was a restaurant menu favorite, it's easy to make, uses few ingredients and it's delicious.

Risotto is a classic Northern Italian rice dish slowly cooked in broth until it becomes rich and creamy. The broth can be made from meat, fish, or vegetables—I used chicken broth, but if you're vegetarian, vegetable stock works just as well.

Creamy Butternut Squash Risotto with Arborio

Creamy Butternut Squash Risotto is a comforting Italian-inspired dish made with creamy roasted butternut squash, Arborio rice, Parmesan cheese, and a touch of fresh herbs. The slow addition of warm broth creates the signature creamy texture of a classic risotto—perfect for a cozy fall or winter meal.

- 2 cups Italian short grain rice
- 1 small butternut squash (peeled seeded and cubed)
- 2 Tbsp. olive oil + 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup minced shallots
- 1 Tablespoons minced garlic
- 2 cups chopped spinach
- 4 cups chicken stock
- 1 cup white wine
- 1 cup crumbled gorgonzola cheese
- 1 cup grated parmesan
- 2 tablespoons chopped Italian parsley
- 1/2 cup pine nuts
- salt and pepper to taste

1. Peel and cut butternut squash into cubes drizzle with olive oil, salt and pepper roast in a 375 degree oven for 30 minutes
2. Mean while heat chicken stock keep warm, in a deep saute pan heat the butter and olive oil, add onion and garlic, saute until translucent,
3. Add the rice cook until golden, salt and pepper to taste, add hot chicken stock slowly and a little at a time waiting until the stock is absorbed before adding more while stirring continuously, Continue adding the broth until all is used

4. Cook until risotto is firm to the bite cooked about 20 minutes. Add parmesan cheese, roasted butternut squash,
5. Add the gorgonzola and more broth if the sauce is to thick. Top with Italian parsley, more gorgonzola and toasted pine nuts....ENJOY!!

These Italian crispy roasted potatoes are straight from my mother's kitchen. She'd parboil them, toss with olive oil, garlic, rosemary, and a little lemon, then roast until golden and crunchy. Simple, comforting, and always the first thing to disappear at the table – I still make them just the way she did. To this day, whenever I make them, the smell that fills my kitchen instantly takes me back to her cooking, and I can't help but smile. This recipe is her original method, and it's one I know you'll want to keep on repeat in your own home.

Things to Know About Italian Crispy Roasted Potatoes

- Parboiling is key: Cooking the potatoes halfway before roasting helps give them a fluffy inside and that golden, crisp crust.
- Rough edges = more crunch: Shaking the potatoes after draining creates little ridges that crisp up beautifully in the oven.

- Use the right potato: Yukon Golds give a buttery texture, while Russets crisp up with an extra crunch – both work well.
- Fresh rosemary makes a difference: If you can, use fresh rosemary sprigs. They infuse the oil and potatoes with authentic Italian flavor.
- Don't skip the lemon: A little zest before roasting and a squeeze of juice at the end adds brightness and balances the richness.
- Crowding the pan ruins the crisp: Spread potatoes in a single layer so they roast instead of steam.
- Reheating tip: Pop leftovers back in a hot oven for 10 minutes to bring back their crispness – the microwave won't do them justice.
- Serve these potatoes alongside a hearty main! Try my Bone-In Pork Chop Piccata or Stuffed Chicken Breast for a full Italian dinner that everyone will love.

Italian Crispy roasted Potatoes

These Italian Crispy Roasted Potatoes are golden brown on the outside, fluffy on the inside, and seasoned with garlic, Parmesan cheese, fresh herbs, and olive oil. They're an easy Italian-inspired side dish that pairs perfectly with chicken, steak, pork, or seafood.

- 2 lbs. Yukon Gold or Russet potatoes (peeled and cut into wedges)
- 1/2 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 2 minced garlic cloves
- 2 sprigs fresh rosemary (or 1 tsp dried)
- Zest of 1 lemon
- Juice of 1 lemon
- salt and pepper to taste

1. Parboil the potatoes:

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil.

Add potato wedges and cook for 5-7 minutes, until just fork-tender but not falling apart.

Drain well and let steam dry for 2 minutes.

2. Rough up the edges:

Shake the colander gently to create a slightly rough surface on the potatoes. This helps them crisp in the oven.

3. Season the potatoes:

Preheat oven to 425°F (220°C).

In a large bowl, toss the potatoes with olive oil, minced garlic, rosemary, lemon zest, salt, and pepper until evenly coated.

4. Roast:

Spread the potatoes in a single layer on a parchment-lined baking sheet.

Roast for 35–45 minutes, flipping halfway, until deeply golden and crisp.

5. Finish with lemon:

Remove garlic cloves and rosemary sprigs.

Squeeze fresh lemon juice over the potatoes just before serving.

6. Serving Suggestion

Serve hot as a side with roast chicken, grilled fish, or alongside a big Italian salad.

In Italy, sugo crudo – meaning “raw sauce” – is a summertime favorite that captures the very essence of fresh, ripe tomatoes. Sweet, juicy tomatoes are paired with fragrant basil, garlic, and rich extra virgin olive oil for a pasta dish that’s as simple as it is unforgettable. Best of all, it’s ready in the time it takes to cook your pasta.

While it’s a traditional dish often enjoyed during Ferragosto on August 15th, when families gather to celebrate the height of summer, it’s just as delicious any time you have sun-ripened tomatoes on hand. Light, vibrant, and bursting with flavor, it’s the perfect recipe for warm-weather dining – or for bringing a taste of summer to your table year-round.

Things to Know About Sugo Crudo

Use the ripest tomatoes: Since this is a no-cook sauce, the tomatoes are the star. Choose ripe, juicy, flavorful tomatoes for the best results. Fresh garden or farmers’ market tomatoes are especially good when they’re in season.

Let it rest: Don't skip this simple step. Let the tomato mixture sit at room temperature for 15–30 minutes before tossing it with the pasta. This gives the garlic, basil, olive oil, and tomatoes time to meld together.

Choose a good olive oil: With so few ingredients, the flavor of your extra-virgin olive oil really matters. Use one that is fruity and flavorful rather than a neutral oil.

Adjust the flavor: Sugo Crudo is easy to customize. Add a pinch of red pepper flakes for a little heat or a bit more garlic if you love a stronger garlic flavor.

Toss with hot pasta: Cook the pasta until al dente, then toss it with the fresh sauce immediately before serving. The warmth of the pasta gently releases the flavors without cooking the fresh tomatoes.

Add fresh mozzarella: For an extra creamy touch, gently fold in small mozzarella pearls just before serving. The cool, creamy mozzarella pairs beautifully with the juicy tomatoes and fresh basil.

Classic Italian Sunday Meatball Sauce – Slow-simmered, rich, and perfect for hearty pasta nights.

Caprese spaghetti Roasted Tomato Sauce – Smoky, bold, and full of flavor for your next pasta dish.

Bring the taste of Italy to your table again and again!

Sugo Crudo – No-Cook Italian Tomato

Sauce

Sugo Crudo is a classic Italian raw tomato sauce made with ripe summer tomatoes, fresh basil, garlic, and extra virgin olive oil. Tossed with hot pasta, the heat gently warms the sauce, creating a light, vibrant dish that's bursting with fresh flavor. This authentic Italian recipe is quick, easy, and perfect for making the most of tomato season.

- 2 pounds ripe tomatoes (heirloom, cherry, or San Marzano)
- 1 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 2 cloves garlic (finely minced)
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup fresh basil leaves (torn)
- 1 teaspoon salt (plus more for pasta water)
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon red pepper flakes (optional)
- 12 oz. pasta (your favorite short pasta shape)
- 1 cup mozzarella pearls or balls cut in half

1. Prepare the tomatoes

Slice the tomatoes in half, remove most of the seeds, and chop into small pieces. For a smoother texture, pulse them briefly in a food processor.

2. Mix the sauce

In a large mixing bowl, combine chopped tomatoes, fresh mozzarella garlic, basil, olive oil, salt, black pepper, and red pepper flakes if using.

Stir gently, cover, and let rest at room temperature for 30 minutes while you cook the pasta.

3. Cook the pasta

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Cook pasta until al dente according to package directions. Reserve $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of the cooking water before draining.

4. Bring it all together

Toss hot pasta with the sugo crudo, adding a splash of the reserved pasta water if needed to help the sauce coat the noodles.

5. Serve immediately

Garnish with more basil and a drizzle of olive oil. Serve warm or at room temperature with crusty bread.

6. Tips for the Best Sugo Crudo

Tomatoes matter most – Use the ripest summer tomatoes you can find.

Let the sauce rest – This allows the garlic and basil to infuse the tomatoes.

Quality oil is key – Choose a fruity, rich extra virgin olive oil.

7. Serving Suggestion

Perfect for a light summer lunch with chilled white wine, a crisp salad, and bread for soaking up every drop.

When our peach tree bursts into sweet, golden fruit each summer, I can't resist finding new ways to enjoy them. This Peach caprese salad with Fresh Mozzarella is my Italian-inspired twist on a caprese, swapping tomatoes for juicy peaches kissed by the grill. You don't need your own peach tree to make it – just ripe, fragrant peaches from the market will do. The smoky char, creamy mozzarella, fragrant basil, and a drizzle of honey-balsamic-herb dressing make every bite taste like summer at its peak.

Things to know about this Peach Caprese Salad with Fresh Mozzarella

- Peach selection matters. Choose peaches that are ripe but still firm so they hold their shape on the grill without turning mushy. If peaches are too soft, grilling will make them fall apart.

- No peach tree needed! Even if you don't have a backyard orchard like I do, fresh market peaches work beautifully for this recipe.
- Grill carefully. High heat is key for those beautiful char marks and smoky flavor, but keep an eye on the peaches so they don't overcook. Two to three minutes per side usually does the trick.
- Mozzarella or burrata? Burrata adds extra creaminess and luxury, but fresh mozzarella is delicious, more affordable, and widely available.
- Customize the dressing. The honey-balsamic-herb dressing is sweet and tangy, but you can swap herbs to suit your taste – rosemary or basil would be lovely additions.
- Make it a meal. Add prosciutto slices or serve alongside grilled chicken for a heartier summer dinner
- Loved this fresh summer salad? Don't miss these other seasonal favorites: Italian Amaretti stuffed summer peaches or creamy Italian street corn (no- mayo)

Grilled Peach Caprese Salad with fresh mozzarella

Sweet grilled peaches, creamy fresh mozzarella, and fresh basil come together in this easy Italian-inspired summer salad. Finished with extra-virgin olive oil and a simple balsamic drizzle, it's a beautiful balance of sweet, creamy, and savory flavors.

- 4 ripe peaches (pitted and cut into medium thick slices)
- 8 oz fresh mozzarella pearls or slices cut
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes (halved (optional, but adds color and freshness))
- Fresh basil leaves (about 1/4 cup)
- Fresh mint or thyme (optional, for extra herb flavor)

For the Dressing:

- 1/2 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar (or a good quality aged balsamic glaze)
- 1 teaspoon honey
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper (to taste)

1. Preheat your grill (or grill pan) to medium-high heat.
2. Prepare the peaches: Brush the peach halves lightly with olive oil. Place them cut-side down on the grill and cook for about 3-4 minutes until you get nice grill marks and the peaches are slightly softened. Remove and let cool slightly, then slice each half into 3-4 wedges.
3. Make the dressing: In a small bowl, whisk together olive oil, balsamic vinegar, honey, salt, and pepper until emulsified.
4. Assemble the salad: On a serving plate, arrange the grilled peach slices, fresh mozzarella, and cherry tomatoes (if using). Scatter fresh basil and herbs over the top.
5. Drizzle the dressing evenly over the salad.
6. Optional: Add a light drizzle of extra honey over the top if you like it more sweet

In Italy, a fritto misto is all about sharing a platter of hot, golden, crispy bites—often a combination of vegetables, seafood, and other savory favorites. This Crispy Italian Fried Cauliflower takes inspiration from that tradition, turning humble cauliflower into an irresistible antipasto.

The cauliflower is quickly blanched in salted water so it stays tender inside, then dipped in a light garlic-and-herb batter and fried until beautifully crisp and golden. Serve it hot with warm marinara sauce for dipping, or add it to a larger Italian fried platter with zucchini, artichokes, or calamari. It's simple, delicious, and made for sharing.

Things to Know About Crispy Italian

Fried Cauliflower with Marinara

Inspired by Italian fritto misto: This recipe takes inspiration from the Italian tradition of fritto misto, where vegetables and seafood are lightly coated and fried until golden. Cauliflower makes a wonderful addition to this style of antipasto.

Blanch the cauliflower first: A quick blanch in salted boiling water is an important step. It tenderizes the cauliflower so the inside cooks perfectly while the batter becomes crisp and golden in the hot oil.

Use cold sparkling water: Cold sparkling water gives the batter a lighter, airier texture. The bubbles help create that delicate crunch without making the coating heavy.

Season the batter well: Garlic powder, paprika, and Italian herbs add subtle flavor to the cauliflower without overpowering the marinara dipping sauce.

Don't overcrowd the pan: Fry the cauliflower in batches so the oil stays hot and each piece has enough room to cook evenly. Overcrowding can result in a heavier, less crisp coating.

Crispy Cauliflower Batter Recipe

Crispy cauliflower batter recipe featuring tender cauliflower coated in a light, golden, and crunchy Italian-style batter. A delicious vegetarian appetizer, side dish, or snack that is easy to make and full of flavor.

- 1 medium head cauliflower
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/3 cup cornstarch (for extra crispiness)
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon smoked paprika (or regular paprika)
- salt and pepper to taste
- 1 cup cold sparkling water (or more, as needed)
- Optional: pinch of cayenne pepper or chili flakes for heat
- olive oil for frying

1. Prep the cauliflower:
2. Cut 1 medium head of cauliflower into florets. Rinse and pat dry thoroughly.
3. Blanch the cauliflower:
4. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add the cauliflower florets and cook for 2–3 minutes, just until slightly tender but still firm. Drain well and pat completely dry with paper towels.
5. Make the batter:
6. In a large bowl, whisk together the flour, cornstarch, baking powder, salt, and spices. Slowly add the cold sparkling water, whisking until smooth. The batter should be thick enough to coat the florets but still drip slightly – like pancake batter.

7. Coat the florets:

8. Dip each floret into the batter, letting any excess drip off.

9. Fry or bake:

To fry: Heat the oil to 350°F (175°C). Fry florets in batches for 3–5 minutes, or until golden and crispy. Drain on paper towels.

To bake: Preheat oven to 425°F (220°C). Line a baking sheet with parchment. Place battered florets on the sheet and spray with oil. Bake for 25–30 minutes, flipping halfway, until golden and crisp.

There's something special about making a meal with vegetables you've grown yourself. This Tuscan Roasted Tomato & Eggplant Soup came together with ingredients picked straight from my summer garden—sun-ripened tomatoes, tender eggplant, sweet peppers, and garlic. It reminded me so much of my mom's garden growing up, where the late-summer harvest always turned into something cozy and delicious simmering on the stove.

But you don't need a garden to enjoy this soup. Just grab the freshest produce you can find—whether it's from the farmers' market, your local grocery store, or a roadside stand. A simple roast in the oven brings out deep, rich flavor, and the result is a rustic bowl of comfort that tastes like it's been passed down through generations.

Things to know about this Tuscan roasted tomato & eggplant soup

- It's naturally simple and wholesome. Made with just fresh vegetables, broth, and olive oil, this soup is light, nourishing, and full of flavor—perfect for any season.
- Roasting is the magic step. Roasting the tomatoes, eggplant, peppers, and garlic concentrates their flavors and gives the soup a rich, slightly smoky depth that you just can't get from boiling alone.
- Customizable to your kitchen. No eggplant? Add zucchini. Want it creamier? Blend in a spoonful of ricotta or coconut milk. Add white beans for protein, a handful of pasta to make it hearty, or a pinch of smoked paprika for extra warmth.
- Use what's in season. Fresh summer tomatoes are ideal, but if it's not tomato season, good-quality canned San Marzano tomatoes work too—just roast the other veggies and add the canned tomatoes in the blender stage.
- It freezes beautifully. Cool it completely before freezing in airtight containers or freezer bags. It's perfect for those chilly nights when you need something cozy and homemade.

Tuscan roasted Tomato & Eggplant Soup

Tuscan roasted tomato and eggplant soup combines oven-roasted tomatoes, tender eggplant, garlic, and herbs into a rich and flavorful Italian soup. A rustic, comforting recipe that highlights simple Mediterranean ingredients

- 2 lbs. ripe tomatoes (Roma or heirloom, halved)
- 1 medium eggplant (cut into cubes)
- 2 bell peppers (red, yellow, or orange, seeded and chopped)
- 1 small yellow onion (quartered)
- 6 garlic cloves (peeled)
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper (to taste)
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes (optional)
- 3 cups vegetable or chicken broth
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup fresh basil leaves
- Optional for serving: extra virgin olive oil (pesto sauce, ricotta, or crusty bread)

1. Roast the vegetables: Preheat oven to 400°F (200°C). On a large baking sheet, toss tomatoes, eggplant, bell peppers, onion, and garlic with olive oil, salt, pepper, and red pepper flakes. Roast for 35–40 minutes, until vegetables are soft and caramelized.
2. Blend: Transfer roasted vegetables to a blender or use an immersion blender with 1 cup of broth. Blend until smooth (or leave slightly chunky for a rustic texture).

3. Simmer: Pour into a pot, add the remaining 2 cups of broth, and bring to a simmer over medium heat for 10–15 minutes. Stir in fresh basil.
4. Serve: Ladle into bowls. Finish with a drizzle of olive oil, pesto sauce or a spoonful of ricotta. Serve with warm, crusty bread.

If your garden is anything like mine right now, it's bursting with zucchini—everywhere I turn, another one is ready to be picked. I swear they multiply overnight! This time of year, I'm always looking for new ways to use them up, and this Roasted Zucchini Panzanella Salad is one of my favorite solutions. It's rustic, simple, and the perfect way to let those garden veggies shine. With toasted bread, juicy tomatoes, and a punchy vinaigrette, it's everything I love about summer on a plate.

It's also one of those no-fuss dishes that gets better as it sits. The roasted zucchini brings a tender sweetness, the bread soaks up all the flavor, and the tomatoes and basil keep it light and bright. Whether you serve it as a main dish or a side for grilling season, this is one zucchini recipe you'll come back to again and again.

Things to know about this Roasted Zucchini Panzanella Salad recipe

- Perfect for peak zucchini season: This is a great way to use up an abundance of garden zucchini while keeping things light and flavorful.
- Best with day-old bread: Slightly stale or toasted bread holds up best in the vinaigrette and gives that classic panzanella texture.
- Customize it your way: Add crumbled feta, white beans, grilled corn, or olives for extra protein or punch.
- Let it sit before serving: Giving the salad 10–15 minutes to rest allows the bread to soak up the vinaigrette and all the flavors to meld beautifully.
- Tastes even better the next day: Store leftovers in the fridge for up to 2 days—it makes a fantastic next-day lunch.
- Make it a meal: Serve it alongside grilled chicken, fish, or even a simple fried egg on top for a satisfying summer dinner.
- Craving more fresh summer flavors?

Roasted Zucchini Panzanella Salad Recipe

Roasted zucchini panzanella salad combines caramelized zucchini, toasted bread, fresh herbs, and seasonal vegetables in a classic Tuscan-style bread salad. A rustic Italian recipe that is perfect for summer gatherings or a light meal.

- 2 medium zucchini (sliced into cubed)
- 2 cups crusty bread (cubed (day-old or toasted))
- 2 cups cherry tomatoes (halved)
- 1/2 red onion (thinly sliced)
- 1/2 cup fresh basil leaves (torn)
- 2 tbsp red wine vinegar
- 4 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (divided)
- 2 teaspoon each garlic powder and paprika
- Salt and freshly cracked black pepper (to taste)
- 1 garlic clove (minced (for vinaigrette))
- Optional: shaved Parmigiano or crumbled feta for serving

1. Preheat the oven to 425°F (220°C).
2. Season the zucchini: Toss sliced zucchini with 2 tablespoons olive oil, garlic powder, paprika, salt, and black pepper. Spread on a parchment-lined baking sheet in a single layer.

3. Roast for 20–25 minutes, flipping once, until golden and slightly crisp around the edges. Let cool slightly.
4. Toast the bread: While the zucchini roasts, toss cubed bread with a drizzle of olive oil and toast in the oven for 10–15 minutes, until golden and crunchy.
5. Make the vinaigrette: In a small bowl, whisk together red wine vinegar, 2 tablespoons olive oil, minced garlic (if using), a pinch of salt, and pepper.
6. Assemble the salad: In a large bowl, combine roasted zucchini, toasted bread, halved cherry tomatoes, red onion, and basil. Drizzle with vinaigrette and toss gently.
7. Let it sit for 10–15 minutes so the flavors meld and the bread absorbs some dressing.
8. Serve at room temperature, optionally topped with shaved Parmigiano or crumbled feta.

This rustic roasted pepper salad takes me right back to my childhood summers—watching my family roast peppers over the open flame, Tossed with briny olives and tender spinach, it's simple, fresh, and exactly the kind of dish that always showed up on the table when the garden was overflowing.

My mother used to pick the peppers straight from our garden—red, green, and sometimes the pale yellow ones that turned sweet in the late summer sun. She'd roast them right on the stovetop until the skins blistered, then peel and marinate them with olive oil, garlic, and whatever fresh herbs were on hand. This roasted pepper salad, now with baby spinach, olives, and tomatoes, brings all those flavors rushing back. It's rustic, vibrant, and full of the warmth of those simple garden days.

Things to know about this rustic Italian Roasted pepper salad

Use a mix of peppers – Red peppers are sweet and mellow, green have a slightly bitter edge, and yellow or orange add brightness. The mix gives great balance.

Roast your peppers properly – Blister the skins until charred, then steam them in a covered bowl or bag to peel easily. This brings out their natural sweetness and smoky depth.

Choose good olives – Italian oil-cured or kalamata olives add briny contrast. Slice or leave whole depending on preference.

Spinach wilts slightly – Toss in the spinach while the peppers are still warm if you like it a little wilted; otherwise, wait until they cool.

Cherry tomatoes add freshness – They brighten the dish and bring a juicy pop. Use ripe, sweet tomatoes for best flavor.

Garlic + olive oil = essential – Don't skip this classic combo. It's the heart of the dressing and soaks into everything beautifully.

Make it ahead – This salad tastes even better after resting. Let it sit for 30 minutes–or overnight–for maximum flavor.

Serve it your way – It's great as an antipasto, side salad, or even tossed with pasta or farro for something heartier.

Italian Roasted Pepper Salad with Spinach, Olives & Tomatoes

- 2 red bell peppers
- 2 green bell peppers
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes (halved)
- 1/3 cup Italian black olives (or kalamata, pitted)
- 2 cups baby spinach (lightly packed)
- 1 cup fresh mozzarella balls sliced
- 1 small garlic clove (finely minced)
- 3 -4 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 1 tablespoon red wine vinegar or fresh lemon juice
- Handful of chopped fresh parsley
- Salt and black pepper (to taste)
- Optional: a pinch of dried oregano or torn fresh basil leaves

1. Roast the peppers: Char the red and green bell peppers on an open flame, grill, or under a broiler until the skins blister. Place in a covered bowl or bag to steam for 10 minutes, then peel off the skins, remove seeds, and slice into strips.
2. Assemble the salad: In a large bowl, add the roasted pepper strips, cherry tomatoes, mozzarella, olives, and baby spinach.
3. Make the dressing: In a small bowl, whisk together olive oil, vinegar or lemon juice, garlic, salt, and pepper.

4. Toss & rest: Pour the dressing over the salad and toss gently until the spinach is just wilted and everything is coated. Let sit for 15–20 minutes so the flavors can meld.
 5. Finish: Sprinkle with chopped parsley and a touch of oregano or fresh basil, if using. Serve at room temperature or lightly chilled.
 6. Tip: This salad is even better the next day. Serve with grilled bread or as a fresh side to roasted chicken, fish, or a big bowl of pasta.

Nothing says summer like a Caprese-inspired pasta dish, and this Caprese Spaghetti with Roasted Tomato Sauce is the perfect way to celebrate simple, fresh flavors. Sweet, oven-roasted tomatoes blended into a rustic sauce coat long strands of spaghetti, while creamy mozzarella pearls and fresh basil bring the classic Caprese touch. It's a light yet satisfying meal that tastes like a sunny afternoon in Italy—easy enough for a weeknight, but special enough to serve to guests. If you love juicy tomatoes, fragrant basil, and the magic of melted mozzarella, this dish will quickly become a favorite.

Things to know about this Caprese Spaghetti with Roasted Tomato Sauce

- The sauce can be made ahead: Roast your tomatoes, blend them into a sauce, and store it in the fridge for up to 4 days or freeze for longer. This makes it easy to pull together dinner on a busy night—just boil your pasta, reheat the sauce, and toss everything together.

- Perfect for peak summer tomatoes: This recipe shines when you use ripe, in-season tomatoes. Roasting them concentrates their sweetness and creates a rich, slightly smoky flavor that elevates the entire dish.
- Caprese twist adds creaminess: Fresh mozzarella pearls melt slightly from the warmth of the pasta and sauce, creating a luscious texture without needing cream or butter. The fresh basil finishes it all off with a bright, aromatic pop.
- Simple ingredients, big flavor: You only need a few pantry staples plus fresh tomatoes, basil, and mozzarella—but the result is a restaurant-worthy dish that feels both comforting and fresh.
- Serve warm or room temp: It's delicious hot off the stove, but also works beautifully as a room-temperature pasta for summer gatherings or easy lunches.
- Ready to bring the taste of summer to your table? Try this Caprese Spaghetti with Roasted Tomato Sauce and let the fresh, flavors speak for themselves.
