Things to know about this Creamy Seared Scallop Fettuccine Pasta

In this Seared Scallop Fettuccine the scallops are perfectly seared for my taste. Here's how to get perfectly seared scallops. Start by patting the scallops dry with paper towels.

Next salt and pepper the scallops, meanwhile in a large saute pan bring the olive oil and butter to medium high heat. Saute the scallops being sure they are not crowded in the pan three minutes on each side turning once.

The combination of butter and olive oil produce a seared crust without burning the delicate scallops. Not crowding the pan also helps the scallops to sear and not be colorless.

In this recipe I used large 16 – 20 scallops sea scallops you can use the smaller bay scallops and your also not tried down to using fettuccine, use any long shape pasta you like. If you like scallops as much as I do try my personal favorite Seared Scallops with Creamy Orzo
