30 minute Red Snapper Piccata

This 30 minute Red Snapper piccata has all the flavors of a traditional piccata with a few add – ins. Traditional piccata is a sauce of lemon, parsley, butter and capers. In this recipe

It's a restaurant quality meal, that was on special at the restaurant, whenever the fresh red snapper and garden tomatoes were available.

If you know me I can't get enough of easy meals that require simple ingredients with minimal prep and clean up, recipes like this one, it comes together in less than 30 minutes, and the best part you only need one pan.

It's the perfect balance between savory, salty and tangy, flavors that make this fish dinner perfect for weeknight family meals or Friday night dinner with friends.

Things to know about this 30 minute red snapper piccata recipe

In this recipe I used red snapper. I have made it using tilapia and I like them both. You can use any firm white fish you like. Be sure not to over cook it , fish cooks quickly over cooking dry's it out.

The fish in this recipe took three minutes on each side to cook, then I removed it from the pan while making the tomato piccata sauce. Here too you can adjust the constituency and flavor of the sauce to your liking by how long you cook it.

For a fresher, lighter sauce for warmer weather I only cook it about ten minutes retaining the fresh taste of the lemon and tomatoes.

If am going to reheat the fish for later serve a under cook it just a tat. Another thing I like to do when I make this is add one sliced lemon to the sauce for extra lemon flavor.
