This is the kind of pasta salad I always come back to once the weather warms up—simple, fresh, and made with whatever I have in the fridge. I like using tubettini because it catches all the little bits of salumi, cheese, and dressing in every bite, and it reminds me of the easy summer meals we'd throw together without overthinking it. It's the kind of dish that gets better as it sits, perfect for making ahead and putting out for a relaxed lunch or casual get-together.

Things to know about this Tubettini Pasta Salad (Italian pasta fredda)

- The meats are cut small, about the size of the pasta—nothing chunky

- It's olive oil based, never creamy
- It should feel balanced, not heavy or overloaded
- Served at room temp or slightly chilled, not ice cold
- This is the kind of dish you'd see packed for a beach day or put out for a casual summer lunch. It's flexible—everyone kind of makes their own version based on what they have.

Optional Add-Ins

- Cubed provolone for a sharper bite
- Marinated artichokes
- Roasted red peppers
- A handful of arugula right before serving

Storage

Store any leftovers in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 3 days. Before serving, let it sit at room temperature for about 15–20 minutes and give it a quick toss with a drizzle of olive oil to refresh the flavors, as the pasta will absorb some of the dressing.
